

WMFO Summer Meeting Minutes

7:08 Meeting begins

7:09 Music department reports and urges community members to listen too new music.

7:10 Chase reports on the success of the donation drive.

7:11 Volunteer director reports that there is jazz to be listened to, and that hours will be given to anyone who listens.

7:12 Announcement that creative content and Ops are going on hiatus for the summer.

7:13 Belinda begins talking about the FCC and ways to not get sued.

7:15 The importance of station IDs is emphasized.

7:18 A horror story is told about what happens if spinitron is not used.

7:22 Belinda leads a discussion over the myths of fair use.

7:31 The vacation habits of FCC members is discussed.

7:33 The identity of the chief operator is clarified.

7:34 Belinda describes the protocol for discussing community issues.

7:42 The importance of political neutrality (though the equal importance of discourse) is emphasized.

7:55 Belinda's presentation closes.

7:56 Ben describes the correct format for reporting on community issue discussions.

7:58 Jesse explains automation.

7:59 Jesse explains how to take phone calls while on air and I realize that I was doing it totally wrong.

8:02 Summer forms are distributed.

8:05 The fair use of graffiti is clarified.

8:08 Jameelah is made the new GM.

8:08 Meeting closes.